Strategic Priorities Analysis
BCCS AI Workshop - August 11, 2025

Top 3 Statements for Each Strategic Category

1. Immediate Implementation (High Priority, High Feasibility)

These statements represent the highest priority items that are also highly feasible to implement. They should be prioritized for immediate action and can serve as quick wins to demonstrate value.

- Statement 89: 89. Allow clinicians to focus on tasks requiring their expertise
  Importance: 4.17 | Feasibility: 4.00 | Combined Score: 8.17

- Statement 69: 69. Reduce admin burden
  Importance: 3.92 | Feasibility: 4.17 | Combined Score: 8.08

- Statement 100: 100. Automation of routine tasks
  Importance: 4.00 | Feasibility: 4.08 | Combined Score: 8.08

2. Research and Development (High Priority, Low Feasibility)

These statements represent high-priority items that require significant research, development, or strategic planning. They should be included in long-term strategic initiatives.
- Statement 3: 3. Concerns with patient acceptability
  Importance: 4.08 | Feasibility: 3.17 | Gap: 0.92

- Statement 94: 94. Patient/parent/caregiver/provider acceptability
  Importance: 3.92 | Feasibility: 2.92 | Gap: 1.00

- Statement 38: 38. Ensuring cybersecurity of AI tools
  Importance: 3.75 | Feasibility: 3.17 | Gap: 0.58

3. Quick Wins (Low Priority, High Feasibility)

These statements represent items that are easy to implement but may not be the highest priority. They can be implemented quickly to build momentum and demonstrate progress.

• Statement 37: 37. Consultation recording and transcription
  Importance: 3.17 | Feasibility: 4.18 | Gap: 1.02

• Statement 68: 68. Phased roll-out
  Importance: 3.17 | Feasibility: 4.08 | Gap: 0.92

• Statement 21: 21. Helps with generation of ideas can act as a sounding board
  Importance: 2.83 | Feasibility: 3.58 | Gap: 0.75

Strategic Priorities Visualization

Strategic Priorities - August 11 BCCS AI Workshop
(Top 3 statements highlighted for each strategic quadrant)

This visualization shows all statements plotted by importance vs feasibility. The highlighted points represent the top 3 statements for each strategic category. Green points are Immediate Implementation, red points are Research & Development, and blue points are Quick Wins.